ROC. 25196-52 F5 dated 19-8-52

Sir,

SUB: Act - Madras District Municipalities Act - Coondapur panchayat - South Kanara District - provisions extension of 39906

The Executive Officer Coondapur panchayat has raised the question whether the provisions of the Madras District Municipalities Act already extended to the Coondapur panchayat in G.O.No.685 P.H. dated 21-2-38 can be automatically enforced in respect of the area subsequently included in the jurisdiction of the Coondapur panchayat or whether a fresh notification extending the provisions of the Act to the entire area of the panchayat is necessary.

I am of the opinion that as the provisions have been extended to the " Panchayat area " the said provisions will apply to whatever area is " panchayat area " from time to time and no fresh notification appears necessary.

As the matter is however not free from doubt, I request that Government may be pleased to clarify the position.

In the notification issued as per G.O.No.685 P.H. dated 21-2-38, the Madras Town Planning Act 1920 was extended to Coondapoor Panchayat area. As the Panchayat area was extended after 1938 by inclusion of Voderhobli village it may be necessary to reissued the notification issued in G.O. The opinion expressed by the Inspector of Municipal Councils and Local Boards in paragraph 2 of his letter at page 1 c.f.,viz., that no fresh notification is necessary is not correct. It was held in (1948)55,M.L.J.718,that where a revenue village which was also constituted a Union by the Government under section 6 of the M.L.B.Act of 1884 was subsequently enlarged by the Board of Revenue so as to include another village, it had not the effect of automatically enlarging the limits of that village as a Union so as to include the other village. A fresh notification extending the provisions of the M.D.M.Act to the area for the time being within the jurisdiction of the Coondapur panchayat in supersession of the existing notification may therefore be issued. The words "for the time being" will avoid the issue of notifications every time the area of the panchayat is altered.
